

EXHIBIT D

Dostoevsky: "Brothers Karamazov" - 8/10 - must read in Prison

"Besy" - 7/10 - too many dialogs, too few action, but great to know

Tolstoy: "War and Peace" - 10/10 - 1st book in jail to read

"Anna Pomeschika" - 5/10 - Grafomania

"Poli kyska" - 6/10 - Okay one

"Holstomer" - 4/10 - He got paid by page

"Death of Ivan Ilyich" - 8/10 - good to read to know Tolstoy but save time

"The master and the worker" - 3/10 - he got paid by page

"Fake Cupon" - 5/10 - If you enjoyed "Anna Karenina" - read

Nabokov: "Defense of Luzhin" - 8/10 - much better than "Lolita"

Paulo Coelho: "O Monte Cinco" - 7/10

Archibald Cronin: "The Citadel" - 8/10 - highly recommend

E.M. Remarque: "Night in Lisbon" - 9/10 - his best novel for me

"Triumph Arc" - 7/10

"No Changes at the western front" - 7/10, too hard in jail to read

A. Tolstoy (his son): "Peter I" - 9/10 - fantastic historical novel

Solzhenitzyn: "Archipelag GULAG" - 10/10. Must Read

T. Dreiser: "Finansist" - "Titan" - "Stoile" - 9/10 I love it

M. Sholohov: "Tihy Don" - 10/10. Like "War and peace" but about Revolution in Russia

Pasternak: "Doctor Zhivago" - 9/10 - How Russian Smart people acted in 1917

Dynama: "Monte Cristo" - 8/10 - classics

T Manh: "The Magic Mountain" - 6/10